Tutor Survival Kit Volume II
by Evelyn Renner

These survival kits are designed to give you new, imaginative activities to use with students. Whether you're working with one student or many, they provide you with lots of collaborative activities to engage students. Based on the idea that fun should be part of the learning experience, these interactives use everything from bananas to laundry detergent. Each survival kit also covers some basic concepts, the importance of learning by doing, language acquisition principles, and how to use the survival kit. Masters are reproducible an unlimited number of times for exclusive use by the purchaser's program. ($39.95 for masters)
